

The just will live on faith

Does the righteous 'live on faith' or 'live on every word that comes out of God's mouth'?

What is it to be 'alive' and 'dead'?

As there is no communion between Light and darkness, it is clear that there is no communion between God (life) and men under condemnation (dead).