

Download

When we hear about God, we seized with reverent attitudes, a feeling of devotion invades us, and emotion speaks loudly. Often, when we read about God's love for humanity, willingness comes to the surface and we want to turn our feelings and emotions into service.