

The Samaritan woman

When the Samaritan woman discovered that she was facing a prophet, she wanted to know about spiritual issues: worship, and left her personal needs in the background.

The parable of the locust of the prophet Joel

The damage described by the action of locusts, refers to the great evils resulting from the war with foreign nations and not to legions of demons. It is an unprecedented lie to say that each type of grasshopper represents legions of demons, who act on the lives of men.